“ Sending prayers to Lisa’s family, I met Lisa when she worked at the convenience store. We always broke out in conversation when I saw her. My daughter and her son were in the same grade so kids was usually our topic. Then when she went to reasons I would see her and catch up if she had a minute. Being in small town tahlequah it was easy to keep up with Lisa it seemed she and Will were always participating in a charity event or cooking BBQ to sell which we always grabbed some. Facebook world always kept us connected. And a few times camping the same place . Im going to miss seeing her on Facebook and around town. God be with her family through this heartache.

“ I didn't know Lisa real good. I know her through church. When I think of Lisa Caviness..... I think of a lady who ALWAYS made if obvious that she was a Christian woman that had her eyes of Jesus, and never seemed to let her health circumstances get in the way of worshipping Him through the storm. We could all learn from Lisa's outlook, faith, and attitude. Love to her family.

“ There was never a time that I wasn't greeted with a hug, a smile and "how are you and those girls doing," from Lisa AR Reasors. You see we grew up together starting as far back as Cherokee Elementary. Her brother Michael was my 1st boyfriend and was in my grade. Lisa knew that I had become a widow and was always concerned about my well-being because of that. She worked with my oldest daughter, Alexis and was forever kind to her. I will miss those hugs and warm smile to the occasional laugh from that Angel on earth Lisa. Rest in peace on that mountain fore your work is done. Love you and I will see you again!
